

World's Needy to Benefit From Old, Used Glasses

A plan for the re-use of old spectacles by needy persons throughout the world has been adopted by the South Bay Optometric Society, according to Dr. John E. Chase, of Torrance, president of the society.

Boy Scouts To Honor Eagles

Boy Scout Troop 154 of Torrance will have the distinction of holding a double Eagle Court of Honor Friday when two members—Jack Christensen and Steven Blankenship—are initiated into the Eagle Scout program.

The Court of Honor will be held at 7:30 p.m. at Joseph Arnold Elementary School.

Jack, who lives at 23046 Anza Ave., has participated in scouting since the age of 8. Now 12, he has already served the troop as scribe, assistant patrol leader, patrol leader, bugler, and instructor. The Meadow Park School seventh grader is currently den chief of Pack 586 and served as bugler for the Order of the Arrow Tap Out for the entire area last fall.

A COMPETITION swimmer, Jack has completed the course for Junior Red Cross Lifesaving and the mile swim for the Boy Scout swim award. He is president of his class at school and plays in the band.

Thirteen-year-old Steven Blankenship began his scouting career in Stockholm, Sweden. Now in the eighth grade at Seaside School, Steven lives at 5117 Ave. 8. He has served as an assistant patrol leader, patrol leader, assistant treasurer, den chief, and instructor.

Steven has earned the bronze camping medal and was accepted into the Order of the Arrow.

Other Eagle Scouts in Troop 154 are Craig Fisher, Randy Lenton, and John Wilner.

Direct Relief Foundation in Santa Barbara. This worldwide organization provides drugs, medical supplies, and equipment to hospitals in more than 50 countries in the free world. At these hospitals there are qualified persons trained to use the drugs, supplies, glasses, and other materials furnished through the Direct Relief Foundation.

Drugs, equipment, and supplies are donated by manufacturers and the medical profession, and are processed and packed to fill the individual needs of each institution. It is estimated that Direct Relief shipments approximate $10 million a year.

Persons having spectacles they wish to donate for the benefit of the needy with vision problems are urged to leave their spectacles at the office of any member of the South Bay Optometric Society. The collection of these spectacles is facilitated by the volunteer services of optical laboratories belonging to the Southern California Optical Laboratories Association.

Glasses donated to the Direct Relief Foundation are tax deductible, and a receipt will be given for this purpose.

They are then sent to the

June 1 Deadline Set for Young Musicians Contest

June 1 is the deadline for singers, pianists, violinists, cellists, and composers to apply for the 1968 Young Musicians Foundation national competition, which begins June 15 on the campus of the University of California at Los Angeles.

The finals will be presented Sunday afternoon, June 23, at 1:30 in the Ahmanson Theatre of the Music Center. Performers 25 years old and younger may enter any of the five categories. A total of $5,000 in prizes—$1,000 in each category, is being offered by the Young Musicians Foundation, a resident company of The Music Center.

In addition, all finalists will have the opportunity to appear as soloists with the YMF Orchestra or in recital during the 1968-69 YMF concert season.

Application may be obtained from the Young Musicians Foundation, 490 S. San Vicente Blvd., Suite 6, Los Angeles 90048.
